

Presentation Rubric

Assignment:
Name:

Score:

Category	Scoring Criteria	Point Value	Points Earned	Teacher Evaluation
Content	Proper sequence of presentation (intro, data, significance, summary). Title page contains presentation title, student name(s), and source (if a review presentation). Information is also presented in a logical sequence.	5
	Introduction given, which provides background information on topic; scientific terms are defined.	5
	Presentation is accurate and contains sufficient material to cover the topic.	60
	Tables, figures, illustrations, and photos are used when appropriate.	5
	Summary at end gives describes main points (with detail) given in presentation; presenter asks for questions at the end.	5
	References are properly cited at the end of the presentation.	5
Delivery	Good eye contact is maintained, voice is clear and audible, and appropriate body language is used; correct pronunciation and grammar are used.	5
	Presentation meets time restrictions	5
Presentation	Presentation may be easily viewed and text read from anywhere in the room. Presentation is artistically pleasing but not distracting.	5
		100		